Vet Gets Five Years

AUSTIN—Korean war hero Sgt. Bobby Joe Keesee, who said a man posing as a Central Intelligence agent duped him into a crime spree that ended with a flight to Cuba, was sentenced to five years' imprisonment and fined $2500 yesterday for interstate transportation of a stolen car. "That was a pretty rough sentence," Keesee said. Keesee, 28, of Amarillo, was convicted Tuesday. It was the first trial of 182 counts lodged against the Army sergeant, who is AWOL from Fort Huachuca, Ariz.
